General Information

The SAA considers training to be professional pedagogical study, i.e. for professional musicians, for course content, pace, and audition purposes.

To qualify as a Participant in Short-Term and Apprentice courses, you must submit and pass an audition. When a course is taken and completed, it will be registered with the SAA. Training is to be taken and registered in order through Book 2 (i.e., ECC, Book 1, then Book 2).

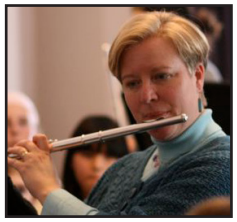
Teacher Trainers



Kimberly Lorimier

Laurel Ann Maurer

Kimberly Lorimier, flutist, has been a registered SAA flute teacher trainer since 2000 and has been teaching in Massachusetts for the past 15 years. She is a graduate of the University of Michigan in flute performance and received her graduation certificate from the Talent Education Institute in Matsumoto, Japan where she studied with Toshio Takahashi. Her studio is currently in Needham, MA.

Laurel Ann Maurer, flute, has been recognized as "one of our outstanding and gifted flutists" by her principal teacher, Julius Baker. She began her Suzuki training in 1987 with Rebecca Paluzzi and also studied privately with Toshio Takahashi, founder of the Suzuki Flute Method. Ms. Maurer became a Suzuki Teacher Trainer in 2007. She has toured throughout the U.S., Europe and Asia, has recorded many CDs and has commissioned new flute works from many American composers. Laurel Ann also studied with Jeanne Baxtresser and Samuel Baron.

Schedule & Housing

Schedule

Over the course of five days, trainees will receive 15 hours of classroom time in the mornings beginning Thursday January 12th. Eight hours of observation time will be completed in conjunction with the 8th Annual Suzuki Student Workshop at Brookline Music School on Sunday and Monday, January 15th and 16th. Classes will end at approximately 5:00pm on Monday, January 16th.

Housing

Rooms have been held at the rate of $134.00/night plus tax at the Brookline Holiday Inn. The Holiday Inn has an indoor swimming pool and is centrally located in Brookline and a ten-minute drive from Brookline Music School.

To reserve, call the Brookline Holiday Inn at (617) 277-1200 by December 14th and ask for the rooms reserved for Brookline Music School. Some home stays may be available on first come, first serve basis.
