

Spring 2018 DYNAMIC DUOS Information & Sign-up

Duos Recitals: March 25, 2018

Dynamic Duos is an opportunity for students to work and perform together, developing ensemble-playing skills and individual musicianship as team. All instruments and voice are welcome, and students will be placed in duos according to age and level, or by partner request. Duos are typically appropriate for students who have had at least 2 years of private lessons.

- Students sign up with private teacher permission by December 15, 2017.
- Ensembles and pieces will be assigned no later than January 16, 2018, and students will begin learning their pieces with their private teachers.
- Students will visit each other's lessons at no additional cost, or meet at another mutually agreeable time, to rehearse at least twice between January 16 and March 25.
- Three duos recitals are scheduled for March 25, 2018, at 1:00, 2:30, and 4:00. Please indicate your preferred time below. We will confirm recital times by March 16.
- Questions? Contact Gregory Tolwinski, gtolwinski@bmsmusic.org or your teacher.

Detach and keep upper part for your records, turn in lower portion to your teacher or to the BMS office.
